What WE commit to do:

- Provide a safe and clean voting environment
- Ensure room sanitation is not compromised
- Provide hand sanitizer to all voters upon entering the polling place
- Provide no touch voter check-in using clean stylus
- Provide quick efficient access in order to limit time spent inside the polling place
- Provide as many voting booths as possible within the polling room, spaced 3 ft. apart center to center. (This allows voting booths to be cleaned when not in use.)

What YOU the VOTER should do:

- Ensure your Address is current prior to arrival - Call (850) 784-6100 before entering the polling location.
- Study sample ballot, mark it, and bring it with you. Together we can meet our goal for you to cast your ballot in 5-10 minutes or less.
- Arrive with clean hands and also use the sanitizer provided once inside the polling location.
- Do not touch your mouth or face once inside the polling room. It is important to keep hands clean as you move through the voting process.
- Limit discussion inside the polling room to protect all voters and workers within the room.
- I strongly encourage you to protect yourself by wearing a face covering. Face masks will not be provided at the polling location.
- If you choose not to wear a face covering, social-distancing will be your responsibility while in line and inside the polling room.
- Check-in, receive your ballot, go directly to the voting booth, mark your ballot, cast your ballot, get your Super Voter Sticker, and exit the polling location.
